

MASS-MEDIA ASPECT OF SPORT HOOLIGANISM

Summary

It is possible to notice a newspaper reports that remind us of presence of sport hooliganism problem every day. It is possible to recognize different aspects of that phenomena. According to Freud, destructive energy connected with Thanathos have to be constantly directed from individual to outside world to avoid self-destruction. Aggressive behavior is an instrument of throwing out of destructive energy, tension reduction and leading to catharsis. Mass-media are totally integrated in society today, and society can not exist without them. The same case is with sport and sport manifestations that rise up to whole movements and partially owing to media, are held up on cult level. Anyway, it is obvious situation that media are not unique cause of hooliganism and other similar acting in sport. They are only one of number factors that influence hooliganism and destructive behavior.
