
ETHICS IN SPORT

Summary

Recreation, game and competition are main parts of sports which is part of physical culture. Competition represents motivation for the team and for the sportsman as an individual, by that, competition is a matter of ethics and freedom in sports. "Fair Play" P. de Couberten has its special place in sports and ethics. „All people are born free and have same dignity and same rights“ – taken from UN's Declaration of human Rights. Freedom in sports choice.

Key words: ethics, sport, freedom, game, competition, rules, motivation, sportsmen
